

International Arbitration

Beale & Co has over 50 years of experience dealing with complex and high value disputes including international arbitrations relating to a wide range of issues.

Whilst we are widely recognised for our expertise in the field of construction-related disputes, our proficiency extends to disputes involving commercial, trustee, D&O, insurance, accounting and technology matters.

We are regularly instructed by our clients to advise on all aspects of the dispute resolution process from crystallisation of a dispute prior to any formal proceedings until resolution. Based on a strong understanding of clients' business needs and the challenges of operating in a global market, our lawyers tailor their approach to address clients' specific legal requirements. Our service is built around cost-effective advice, whilst maintaining a partner-led approach.

We have a proud history of acting for clients around the world and we have built an international practice that provides clients with a first class service, wherever they are. Our lawyers have advised or acted in relation to disputes in various international jurisdictions including the Middle East, Africa, Europe, Australasia and the Americas.

We have considerable knowledge of all major arbitration rules including UNCITRAL, ICC, DIAC, ADCCAC, and DIFC-LCIA. We also have extensive experience acting in relation to ad hoc arbitration agreements, as well as DAB / DRB proceedings, expert determination, mediation and litigation.
